NOTICE OF THE NEXT FEDERAL COURT INTERPRETER CERTIFICATION EXAM FOR SPANISH INTERPRETERS

April 23, 2025

The Federal Court Interpreter Certification Examination, often referred to as the FCICE, is administered in two phases, written and oral examination. To become federally certified, one must pass both the written and the oral examination. The written phase of the examination will be administered May 5-19, 2025. Registration is currently occurring through May 2, 2025, or until a maximum of 400 candidates have registered.

Please note that you must pass the written exam to qualify for the oral exam. Eligibility to sit for the oral exam is dependent on successfully passing the written exam.

The oral phase will be administered August 4-18, 2025. Registration will be from June 23, 2025 to August 1, 2025, or until a maximum of 400 candidates have registered.
