PRESS RELEASE NO. 0018-2020
September 30, 2020

THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE VIRGIN ISLANDS ISSUES ELEVENTH ORDER CONCERNING OPERATIONS OF THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE VIRGIN ISLANDS DURING THE COVID-19 OUTBREAK

The District Court of the Virgin Islands continues to monitor the outbreak of the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19). In so doing, the Honorable Wilma A. Lewis, Chief Judge, issued the Eleventh Order Concerning Operations of the District Court of the Virgin Islands During COVID-19 Outbreak on Tuesday, September 30, 2020.

The District Court operations will recommence with a “soft reopening” to the public effective October 1, 2020. In-person court proceedings may be conducted for any matters that do not involve large numbers of persons in the courtroom, with proceedings that qualify for this exception to the limitation on in-person proceedings to be determined in the sole discretion of the presiding judge.

Clerk's Office counter services will resume, except that payments in cash will not be accepted. Payments may be made by personal check, credit and debit cards, money order, or certified bank check, except that criminal debts cannot be paid by personal check or credit and debit cards.

This Order shall remain in effect for the period October 1, 2020 through October 31, 2020 unless it, or any portion thereof, is modified or terminated earlier or extended by further Order of the Court.
