THIRTY-SECOND ORDER CONCERNING OPERATIONS OF THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE VIRGIN ISLANDS
DURING THE COVID-19 OUTBREAK

UPON CONSIDERATION of the recent record-breaking surge in coronavirus disease (“COVID-19”) cases in the Virgin Islands and the associated circumstances described herein, the instant General Order reinstates certain restrictions on Court operations imposed at the outset of the pandemic. This Order will take effect on January 1, 2022, and will remain in effect through January 31, 2022, unless modified or terminated earlier or extended by further Order of the Court.

WHEREAS, in response to the spread of COVID-19, a public health emergency and a national emergency under the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. §§ 1601 et seq.) were declared by the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services and the President of the United States on January 31, 2020 and March 13, 2020, respectively; and

WHEREAS, on February 24, 2021, the President of the United States issued an Order continuing the national emergency declared in connection with the COVID-19 pandemic, and on July 19, 2021, the Secretary of Health and Human Services renewed the declaration that a public health emergency continues to exist nationwide; and

WHEREAS, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (“CDC”) and other public health authorities have advised public and private agencies to take necessary and appropriate precautions to reduce exposure to COVID-19 and slow the spread of the disease; and

WHEREAS, as of May 20, 2021, the CDC and other public health authorities continue to recommend (1) avoiding large events and gatherings, when possible, (2) requiring individuals at large gatherings to wear masks, and (3) requiring individuals at large gatherings to stay at least 6 feet away from people who don't live with them; and

WHEREAS, in response to the spread of COVID-19, the Governor of the United States Virgin Islands declared a State of Emergency on March 13, 2020, which has been extended on multiple occasions and continues in effect until rescinded or superseded by Executive Order; and

WHEREAS, in Executive Orders, Supplements thereto, and public announcements issued from March 2020 to the present, the Governor of the U.S. Virgin Islands directed and urged various precautionary and preventive actions, designed to respond to, mitigate, and avoid the further spread of COVID-19, while at the same time altering the nature and level of restrictions imposed based on an assessment of the circumstances presented by the COVID-19 pandemic; and

WHEREAS, in light of the serious public health concerns that COVID-19 presents, the District Court of the Virgin Islands entered General Orders concerning the operations of the Court on March 17, 2020, March 20, 2020, April 9, 2020, April 16, 2020, April 30, 2020, May 12, 2020, June 12, 2020, July 8, 2020, July 14, 2020, August 31, 2020, September 30, 2020, October 6, 2020, October 31, 2020, November 30, 2020, December 12, 2020, January 4, 2021, January 15, 2021, February 12, 2021, March 31, 2021, April 4, 2021, April 30, 2021, May 31, 2021, June 30, 2021, July 3, 2021, July 29, 2021, August 30, 2021, September 30, 2021, October 1, 2021, October 31, 2021, November 30, 2021, and December 30, 2021, designed to allow the Court to continue to effectively perform its mission of fairly and impartially administering justice, while at the same time doing so in a manner consistent with the adoption of precautionary and preventive measures aimed at reducing exposure to COVID-19 and slowing the spread of the disease; and

WHEREAS, in its various General Orders, the Court has recognized—and continues to recognize—that the continuing danger and threat to public health and safety that COVID-19 poses and the unpredictability and uncertainty of the COVID-19 impact in the Territory at any given time require, inter alia, the continued monitoring of the COVID-19 climate in the Virgin Islands and the continental United States; the continued implementation of precautionary and preventive measures aimed at addressing the exigencies of the circumstances presented; and the flexibility to adjust the Court’s operations in light of the COVID-19 situation in the Territory, the capacity of the Court, and the needs of particular matters before the Court; and

WHEREAS, based on the Court’s continued monitoring of the COVID-19 climate in the Virgin Islands, the Court has adjusted its operations during the course of the COVID-19 pandemic as the circumstances warranted; and

WHEREAS, from mid-March 2020 through September 2020, mid-December 2020 through April 30, 2021, and August 1, 2021 through October 31, 2021, the precautionary and preventive measures imposed by the Court included, inter alia, the continuance of all civil and criminal bench and jury trials; the limitation of in-person court proceedings to those required by law and not amenable to continuance; and the conduct of videoconference and teleconference proceedings to the greatest extent practicable and permitted by law; and

WHEREAS, in the Court’s Twenty-Ninth Order Concerning Operations of the District Court of the Virgin Islands During the COVID-19 Outbreak entered on October 31, 2021, and implemented effective November 1, 2021—as continued by its Thirtieth Order entered on November 30, 2021—the Court announced an “extended soft reopening” of operations, which consisted of the resumption of grand jury proceedings, the incremental resumption of jury trials; the conduct of Central Violations Bureau proceedings, and the resumption of Clerk’s Office counter services; and

WHEREAS, there has been a recent surge in COVID-19 cases in the continental United States attributed to the emergence of the Omicron variant, which is reported to be at least twice as transmissible as the highly contagious Delta variant; and

WHEREAS, according to the Virgin Islands Department of Health COVID-19 reports, there has been a dramatic spike in COVID-19 cases in the Virgin Islands in recent days, resulting in an increase of 1,085 positive cases from December 16, 2021, to December 28, 2021 (corresponding to an average of 90.42 positive cases per day);<sup>1</sup> and

WHEREAS, the Virgin Islands Department of Health has reported that, as of December 28, 2021, there are currently 993 active COVID-19 cases in the U.S. Virgin Islands, the most active cases reported during the pandemic; and

WHEREAS, as reported by the Virgin Islands Department of Health, 1,085 new positive test results were recorded out of 11,149 tests administered from December 16, 2021, to December 28, 2021, corresponding to a positivity rate of 9.73% over this 12-day period;<sup>2</sup> and

WHEREAS, according to the Virgin Islands Department of Health, as of December 28, 2021, 53,573 individuals are fully vaccinated and 63,062 individuals have obtained at least one dose of a vaccine; and

WHEREAS, the Court recognizes that jury selection in the District of the Virgin Islands frequently involves large jury venire pools, which often consist of individuals in—or caring for those <sup>1</sup> For the period between December 1, 2021, to December 28, 2021, the Virgin Islands Department of Health reported a total of 1,211 positive cases corresponding to an average of 43.25 positive cases per day.

In comparison, when the Virgin Islands experienced a surge of COVID-19 cases in August, 2020, 718 new positive test results were recorded out of 7,051 tests administered from July 31, 2020, to August 31, 2020, corresponding to an average of 23.16 positive cases per day and a positivity rate of 10.18%. Additionally, when the Virgin Islands experienced a surge of COVID-19 cases in December, 2020, 486 new positive test results were recorded out of 7,148 tests administered from November 30, 2020, to December 31, 2020, corresponding to an average of 15.68 positive cases per day and a positivity rate of 6.80%.

<sup>2</sup> In comparison, when the Court implemented a soft reopening in October 2020, and instituted an incremental resumption of jury trials in November 2020, the positivity rate for the month of October was 1.46%. Additionally, when the Court instituted the incremental resumption of jury trials in May 2021, the positivity rate for the month of April was 1.08%.

in—the age categories identified by the CDC as being especially at risk; individuals who are otherwise at enhanced health risks for other recognized reasons; and parents or guardians of school age children who remain involved in at-home virtual learning, thus increasing the likelihood of the unavailability of a significant number of potential jurors and the challenges of convening a representative jury venire; and

WHEREAS, in light of the serious public health concerns that COVID-19 presents, the surge in COVID-19 cases in the continental United States, the recent spike in COVID-19 cases in the Virgin Islands, and the well-publicized concerns regarding the danger and heightened transmissibility of the COVID-19 variants, the District Court finds it necessary to reinstate previously-imposed restrictions;

NOW, THEREFORE, in order to continue to promote public health and safety, and the health and safety of Court personnel and those with whom they interact in conducting the business of the Court, counsel, litigants, other case participants, jurors, persons with other business at the courthouse, and the general public, and consistent with the accomplishment of the Court’s mission and the circumstances discussed herein, it is hereby ORDERED as follows:

1. The District Court of the Virgin Islands will remain open for official business in both the St. Croix and the St. Thomas/St. John Divisions of the Court, subject to the conditions set forth in this Order.

2. With the exception of trials conducted remotely, all civil and criminal jury and bench trials scheduled before any judge or magistrate judge in either Division of the Court, from January 1, 2022, through January 31, 2022, are CONTINUED pending further Order of the Court. The Court may issue further Orders concerning future general continuances of any matters as may be deemed necessary and appropriate. All trials impacted by this Order will be reset by further Order of the assigned judicial officer.

3. Sitting grand juries in each Division of the Court are not authorized to meet from January 1, 2022, through January 31, 2022, and no new grand juries will be empaneled during this period.

4. With regard to criminal matters, the time period of January 1, 2022, through January 31, 2022, shall be “excluded time” under the Speedy Trial Act for purposes of determining when an information or indictment must be filed or when a trial must commence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), because the Court specifically finds that the ends of justice served by taking such action materially outweigh the best interests of the public and any defendant in a speedy trial and speedy indictment in view of the serious public health impact of COVID-19 as discussed herein and in the Court’s prior General Orders. Such exclusion is necessary as to any cases scheduled for trial during the January 1, 2022 through January 31, 2022 period in order to assure that there is a full, unhindered, continuously serving jury venire and seated jury in every case, which is central to the sound administration of justice. Such exclusion of time is also necessary in cases that are set for trial outside of the January 1, 2022 through January 31, 2022 time period, as well as cases that are not yet set for trial, in order to address the reasonably anticipated difficulties in defense counsel communicating or visiting with clients; the difficulties that the parties are likely to face in undertaking all of the tasks necessary to fully prepare for trial; and the inherent delay in the scheduling of further trials as a consequence of the exclusion periods in the Court’s COVID-19 General Orders. Further, such exclusion of time is necessary in the grand jury context due to the uncertainty surrounding the ability of the grand juries to form a quorum. The Court may by further Order extend the period of exclusion as circumstances warrant, and the assigned judicial officer may by Order also do so as to any specific proceeding.

5. The January 1, 2022 through January 31, 2022 continuances granted in criminal matters as discussed above shall also apply to the time limits established by the Interstate Agreement on Detainers, 18 U.S.C. app. 2, § 2 (art. III), in that the detainee shall be deemed to be “unable to stand trial” for that period pursuant to 18 U.S.C. app. 2, § 2 (art. VI(a)).

6. All Central Violations Bureau proceedings from January 1, 2022, through January 31, 2022, are continued pending further Order of the Court.

7. All in-person court proceedings shall be limited to those that are required by law and are not amenable to continuance. All judicial officers are encouraged to conduct proceedings by teleconference or videoconference where practicable and as permitted by law. As applicable, teleconference and videoconference hearings shall proceed in accordance with the Thirty-First Order Concerning Operations of the District Court of the Virgin Islands, Video and Teleconferences for Criminal Proceedings, entered on December 30, 2021.

8. All deadlines set by Federal or Local Rules or Court Orders, including, but not limited to, scheduling orders in all civil and criminal cases, remain in effect unless modified by further General Order of the Court or by Order of the assigned judicial officer. Parties are encouraged to utilize teleconference, videoconference, and other similar means that facilitate the effective accomplishment of assigned tasks without compromising the health and safety of those involved. Further, mediators are authorized and encouraged to permit participation in any mediation ordered pursuant to Rule 3.2 of the Local Rules of Civil Procedure via teleconference and/or videoconference. Any dispute over whether discovery, mediation, or other pretrial activities can be effectively and timely accomplished in a manner consistent with applicable health guidelines may be referred to the magistrate judge for resolution.

9. All judicial officers and employees are authorized to conduct proceedings and to work from remote locations to the greatest extent practicable, unless their physical presence at the Ron de Lugo Federal Building and Courthouse on St. Thomas and the Almeric L. Christian Federal Building and Courthouse on St. Croix is necessary by virtue of the in-person nature of the proceedings or work.
